INTRODUCTORY

The 1973-74 Chinese Directory of the Maritime Provinces is the 21st volume published by the CHINESE PUBLICITY BUREAU LTD. The work embodies a resume of the commercial, industrial and social interests of the communities. It is a functional reference book in all its parts.

All Chinese firms are grouped according to classification and wherever possible the name or names of the owner is included. Chinese organizations are also listed. There is an alphabetical listing of all Chinese citizens and businesses. The last section in each locale contains the Buyers Guide. These essential features increase the value and usefulness of this unique publication - a combination business and telephone directory, the only one of its kind published today.

The total Chinese population in the Maritime Provinces is in excess of 7500. This estimate of population is based on the actual number of individuals listed in the directory, with due allowance for children and women who may not be listed. As in other sectors of Canada, the Maritime Chinese population is increasing yearly due to a normal birth rate among the second and third generation families and to the arrival of many new immigrants from South-East Asia.

HISTORY OF CHINESE IN CANADA

No man knows the year, or even the century, in which the first Chinese foot left its imprint on the western shore of the land that has become the freedom-proud Dominion of Canada

But eminent historical minds have placed the date of the first visit from China at somewhere in the dark ages of western civilization. One of them, B. A. McKelvie, past president of the B. C. Historical Association (Victoria branch) avers there is evidence the slant-eyed stranger made his call 1,000 years before Columbus dropped an anchor on the other side of the continent.

In China, 150 years ago, a Roman Catholic Priest uncovered already ancient archives that recorded many Chinese voyages to the west coast of the North American continent and that named this province as part of Ta Han (Great China).

The first attempt by a Chinese community to exist in British Columbia originated without the band's consent and ended in the uncertain fate of slavery. A certain Captain Mearse, commanding a British man-of-war, brought a boat load of them to Gold River Valley on the west coast of Vancouver Island, and then sailed off on further commendable naval business. There is nothing to show that the Captain ever sailed into that harbour again but there are traces that show the settlement actually sank its roots in an attempt to survive. The records show too, that these roots suffered eventual complete disruption. It is believed that Spanish ships became aware of the existence of the Chinese community, sailed in and took every member into slavery in their mines in Mexico.

This story has nothing to do with the present day Chinese Canadians and almost nothing to do with the country that is now their home. It is just a pointless little tragedy that is difficult to ignore.

After their disappearance there were no Chinese here for 60 years. When they came again the year was 1858 and they were victims of the California Gold Rush Fever. Many thousands were living in California by this time. But only a few men, some with their families, came questing the yellow magic as far north as the valleys of the Fraser and the Thompson.

Five years later, members of this tiny hardy band took part for the first time in the occidental's hard-won right to choose, from among the people, the men to rule the people. It was British Columbia's first election, held two years after Confederation. The Chinese votes were cast in the town of Lillooet.

For 49 years, Chinese names were on the electoral lists. The lists defined them as 'aliens' but their votes were as highly prized by the successful candidates as any other citizens'.

In the rip-roaring '80s, the demands of the Onderdonk construction had the boats from China's ports debarking the sons of China in thousands. Before the first train from Montreal chuffed triumphantly into Port Moody, 15,000 Chinese were a part of the force making a transcontinental dream come true. They were a potential force, too, in any election of the day. That they exercised their franchise is emphasized in records of the 19th century elections wherein returning officers are stated to have witnessed, as acceptable oaths, the breaking of bowls of rice by groups of the Chinese at the polls.

In the elections of 1894, the Chinese voters broke their bowls and spilled their rice to no avail. The government of '94 included amongst its legislation: "Chinamen of the Province of British Columbia may not make application to have their names inserted in any list of voters and are disqualified from voting at any election". Forgotten were the words of Sir John A. MacDonald who once told the House of Commons, "without their help there is no saying when the Canadian Pacific Railway and the mines of the west would have been developed".

Perhaps denial of the right to vote came as no surprise to these patient men of 73 years ago. Their fortunes had been on the ebb for three decades.

The proud little train that completed the first Dominion run pushed another milestone into the history of the Chinese in Canada. The majority of them were suddenly without employment and without the income they had known since their arrival. Few of them wished to return to crowded China and its struggle for existence. They preferred the fierce frontier turbulence because of the generous rewards that sometimes went with it. In their quest for new livelihoods, some of them even tried placer mining in the Cariboo. But it was not long before the Chinese found they could not always get their living where they were inclined to seek it.

The violent surgery that saved the life of the United States of America left an infection of racial prejudice that attacked not only the black units in its young being, but also the yellow, the red and the brown. First evidences of the spreading infection came when American mining camps began to display signs restricting Chinese from holding or seeking mining claims After a bloody night in Red Springs, Wyoming, when 28 Chinese were murdered and hundreds driven from the town's Chinatown, it became a condition that screamed for treatment. Only six years had passed since the Union and Confederate states had laid down the arms they bore against each other when the Los Angeles 'massacre' claimed 22 Chinese lives and left many others wounded in varying degree. All along the Pacific coast the cry was 'Down with the Chinese'.

It came over the 49th parallel without rousing the same number of murderous instincts. But it was strong enough to bring at least one mob out in Vancouver. On one street, every Chinese store was damaged. The mob's insane progress was arrested when a strong band of Oriental Canadians drove them off with clubs, knives, bottles and guns. Canada never had to face the death lists that America once mourned over. And this one exhibition of violence in Vancouver so shocked the Canadian sense of justice that the Chinese appeal to Ottawa brought them redress to the extent of — $100,000.00.

For half a century, literate Chinese of this continent were aware that opinions of a majority of occidental countrymen on the Chinese might run anywhere from the impression left by a perusal of Sax Rohmer's 'Fu Manchu' to the characterization to be gained from the pages of 'Charlie Chan'. The occidental merchants, policemen and doctors, who knew the residents of Chinatown for their true worth, were all too few.

After the violence at the turn of the century, the Chinese could only remain in Chinatown and wait. Employment was largely limited to domestic service, laundry, restaurant work and market gardening. In this last field, their patient industry gradually made them indispensable. Their farms began to dot B. C.'s fertile valleys and in a few years the province was dependent on their produce.

The receding tide slowed and finally turned. Successive generations of Chinese students in the schools of the province erased the legend on the Yellow Peril. Eminent Chinese minds began to appear in the professional ranks of Canada. Chinese athletes took their places and many honours on Canadian sports fields and finally, Chinese sailors, soldiers and airmen took their places in the Canadian service ranks and tasted of the victory that ensured the freedom of their country.

CHINESE FESTIVALS

No people in the world enjoy celebrations more than the Chinese. During the year they have many-all have a special significance and all are celebrated in the grand manner. The Chinese can, on certain occasions, be a very noisy people, shouting, cheering, rushing hither, shooting off firecrackers, sky-rockets and Roman candles; but with it all they never become excited or rude to the point where they forget respect and consideration for those about them.

The Chinese have many festivals. Most are connected with the seasons, but some are occasions for paying respect and reverence to ancestors.

NEW YEAR

New Year is the greatest of all the Chinese celebrations. It is the time for great rejoicing, with a world filled with happiness and promise. Debts are paid before the New Year, leaving everyone free for mirth and happiness in a carefree manner.

The most important ritual takes place on New Year's Eve when sweets, fruits, flowers and choicest foods are blessed and offered before the portraits of ancestors. When the ceremonial hour arrives the head of the family lights red candles and burns incense. Tea is offered to the spirits of deceased loved ones, and members of the family according to seniority, bow before the portraits of the departed.

Dinner on New Year's Eve is the most sumptuous of the year. Foods take on fanciful and exotic names. An egg becomes a 'silver ingot', taros become 'fortunes', and rice cakes signify 'progress and advance'.

The entire family congregates gaily around the table, drinking toasts and telling jokes. Gifts are exchanged. Parents wrap silver dollars or bank notes in red paper and place them under the children's pillows.

Chinese greet each other on New Year's Day with the expression 'Gung hay fat Choy', equivalent to 'Happy New Year along with prosperity'. So tourists visiting Chinatown on New Year also may greet their Chinese cousins with a hearty 'Gung hay fat Choy'. Very often state and city officials visit Chinatown to congratulate local leaders and wish happiness and prosperity to all the people.

During the New Year celebration, Chinatown is a roar of firecrackers, the sky lighted by thousands of rockets and Roman candles. The dragon and lion dances, the big parade, the colorful Chinese beauty contest and the fashion show make the event the best time to visit Chinatown. Determined by the rotation of the moon, the Chinese New Year comes in late January or early February. Visit Chinatown on its day of days Chinese New Year. In anticipation of your visit, Chinatown residents greet you with a hearty 'Gung hay fat choy'.

CHING MING

Another highly celebrated festival is called 'Ching Ming', or the Festival of the Tombs. This event comes toward the end of the second month in the Chinese calendar, the time when the Chinese greet the spring. The festival is universally observed, and while it is a time for pleasure and picnicking, it is also the time when reverence and honor is paid to the departed spirits. On that day graves are put in order. Each family presents an offering before the tablets adorning the graves of its dearly departed. Flowers and wreaths are laid on them as a mark of remembrance. These practices, observed since 700 B.C., can be compared with those of Memorial Day. Ching Ming is celebrated around early April.

MOON FESTIVAL

This important festival, falling on the fifteenth day of the eighth month of the Chinese calendar, is celebrated and revered by every Chinese community. Falling in September, it could be called the Harvest Home, or gathering of the fruits, vegetables and plants for winter storage.

Friends gather around a table of the harvest consisting of moon cakes, candy water chestnuts and wine. For the children it is a day of happiness and promise, for the moon goddess is supposed to come down from heaven to give all mortals, especially the children, their desires.

Old romantic fables are related, woven around the fabulously charming Moon Lady, Chang Ngo, wife of an alchemist, who labored for years to make three pills which could preserve life and transform humans into divinities. During this Mid-Autumn Festival she found and swallowed the pills.

Fleeing the house to escape her husband's wrath, she found herself being transported into the clouds. She landed in moonland before the Palace of Crystal where she was crowned Lady of the Moon.

DOUBLE TEN

Double Ten is Chinese National Day. It is the patriotic occasion similar to the American Fourth of July (Independence Day). It gets its name because it falls on the tenth day of the tenth month. It is the anniversary celebration of the founding of the Chinese Republic.

The Republic was created in 1911 by the beloved patriot, Dr. Sun Yat-Sen and his fellow revolutionaries who, after a long struggle, overthrew the ruling Manchu Dynasty. Now, in spite of the fact that China is under Communist rule, Chinese in all parts of the world dedicate the occasion to the honor and respect of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen, who was also the first president of the Chinese Republic - the Chinese George Washington.

CHINESE CUSTOMS

A birth of any kind is a joyful event in China, and in fact, the expression 'there is a you' or 'your lady has a joy' is the ordinary way of saying that an interesting family event is expected.

Children are a year old at birth. Each New Year they become a year older.

Surnames precede given names. Thus, in Li Hung-Chang, late premier of Chang Dynasty, Li is the surname.

A Chinese written character has the same meaning in all parts of China although its pronunciation may vary from place to place. The writing instrument is a soft, pliable brush held vertically. It was invented about the Third Century. Paper was invented in China earlier.

Most of Chinese books are bound on the right hand side. They are read from the back forward and proceeding from top down and right to left. Some footnotes appear at the top of the page.

South is the central point of the compass, which, incidentally, was invented in China.

The symbol 'Fu' (blessing or happiness) is commonly seen written on red paper above doorways. However, if a death has occurred in the household during the previous year, it is written on white or blue paper.

Hsi is the word for joy in Chinese. This character doubled is called 'double joy'. You will always see a big red 'double joy' character at a Chinese wedding ceremony or displayed in a bride's bedroom. The 'double joy' character symbolizes matrimonial felicity.

White, not black, is the color of mourning. Red color is a good omen.

Soup and fish are served at the end, not the beginning of a banquet. Wines are served warm in the winter. At dinner the host sits opposite the guest of honor, usually with his back to the door. The left side of the table is considered 'higher' than the right.

Finger games may be played for cups of wine at the beginning of a meal. Two players hold out any number of fingers simultaneouly and shout out their guesses of the total number held out. The loser, not the winner, drinks the wine.

To drop chopsticks is an omen of bad luck. Finding an unmatched pair at one's plate foretells the missing of a train or boat. Upsetting a bowl of rice is a sign of ill fortune.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Confederation

History doesn't just happen on one day or even in one year. Certain things, battles and births do happen on one day but that day is just one, perhaps the best or the easiest remembered, in many. To make anything happen, for anything to happen, days, weeks, months, years, centuries "happen" to lead up to and follow that one day.

On July 1st, 1873, Prince Edward Island, not entirely willingly, gave up its status as a colony of the British Crown and became the smallest province in the Dominion of Canada.

That is what we are celebrating this year. The decision to join Confederation was not arrived at in one day nor was it an inevitability. Though known to Europeans for only a few hundred years Prince Edward Island had loyalties and interests in directions quite different to the one that eventually lead this province into becoming a partner in this new and strange federated country.

1973 is a year for Islanders, their families, their friends and the curious stranger to get together and celebrate not only with monuments, plaques, parades and speeches but by the gathering of friends; by being together; having a party.

Prince Edward Island is famous for many reasons and in many places. In Canada it is known as the "Cradle of Confederation" because of the meeting in Charlottetown in 1864 that lead to the Confederation of Canada.

It is famous as the "million acre farm; for its potatoes; and for the riches of its seas and estuaries for its fish, lobster and oysters.

The Island has long been known to the fortunate few for its beauty and tranquility and every year more and more people come to the Island to discover this for themselves.

But to people all over the world in Finland, Australia, Japan, England, France and China, the Island is best known through the books of an Island author, Lucy Maude Montgomery.

Of the twenty-one books written by the immortal Lucy Maude, the best known and loved is her first book which was published in 1908, "Anne of Green Gables", for millions of people Anne (with an E) Shirley is Prince Edward Island.

Miss Montgomery who was born at Clifton Corner, P.E.I., a little more than a year after Prince Edward Island joined Confederation has done more for Prince Edward Island's image than any other person living or dead.

Though it is sixty-five years since "Anne of Green Gables" was first published, the book is still as fresh as it ever was and its popularity has shown no signs of diminishing. If anything interest in the book is greater than ever.

Part of this popularity might be due to the Charlottetown Summer Festival musical play production at Confederation Centre based on the book.

The play it would seem is all set to enjoy the same long lasting and international popularity of the book. Apart from playing every season at Confederation Centre, the play has toured Canada; visited Japan and New York; and been produced in London's West End.

The visitor to Prince Edward Island may go to Miss Montgomery's home at Clifton Corner or to Green Gables in Cavendish or simply wander the Island and enjoy as she did (whether SHE be Miss Montgomery or Anne) the beauty of the Island.

NEWFOUNDLAND

Discovered by John Cabot in 1497, Newfoundland's 43,000 square miles of unspoiled country have since become a scenic and sporting paradise for thousands of tourists from home and abroad.

Newfoundland has had a long and interesting history. Until 1855, it was a separate and distinct unit of the British Empire. From 1855 to 1933, the territory maintained its own independent parliament. Then, through financial difficulties, the staunch little Island voluntarily surrendered its dominion status and became subject to government by commission.

On July 22nd, 1948, the people of Newfoundland voted to join the Dominion of Canada, and Britain's oldest colony became the tenth Province of the Dominion.

Since less than 2,000 air miles separate it from the shores of Ireland, Newfoundland has long been a proving ground for world communications developments. The first Trans-Atlantic cable stretched from Ireland to Newfoundland, and the first wireless message to span the ocean was received in St. John's by Marconi in 1901. The initial nonstop flight between North America and Europe was made from St. John's in 1919. Today, Gander Airport is on the crossroads for North Atlantic air travel.

Newfoundland is famous for its cod, herring, salmon, seal and whale fisheries, and is today the world's largest exporter of salted Codfish. Second in importance is the newsprint industry - with mills at Grand Falls and Corner Brook.

The Island's rugged and beautiful terrain makes it a haven for sportsmen. A wide network of lakes, rivers, ponds, and streams spreads from coast to coast, and here the angler can enjoy the finest in trout and salmon fishing. For the hunter, caribou and moose are found in large numbers, while ptarmigan (grouse), snipe, wild duck and geese provide excellent sport for the small-game enthusiast.

The following sketches will help visitors plan enjoyable trips throughout the Island.

ST. JOHNS, Capital of Newfoundland, with a population of 80,000 and oldest city in North America, is protected by one of the world's most perfect land-locked harbours. A grand view of the city and harbour spreads out from Cabot Tower on Signal Hill, site of Marconi's first successful trans-Atlantic wireless test in 1901. Interesting buildings include: cathedrals, colleges, court house, post office and others.. The museum contains exhibits relating to Newfoundland's history and first inhabitants -- the Beothics, a tribe of Indians now extinct.

中國人在某年某月或某個世紀開始涉足於加拿大，追之中國歷史，似乎沒有痕跡存在足資稽考，不過有些頗負有盛譽的歷史專家則認爲當西方文明尚屬原始的時代，已有中國人的踪跡出現於北美新大陸。有位大學教授麥倫偉先生，且斷言謂哥倫布尚未發現新大陸的一千年前，已有黃種人流浪到過這地來。

一百五十年前，有位傳道士亦謂彼在中國傳道時，曾發現過中國人經常駕舟到北美的新大陸去，有紀錄遺留下來，根據該項紀錄，中國人當時尚把本省劃入大漢（中國）的版圖。

首批中國人當初在卑詩省建立華僑社會時，因未得到土著的垂青，後來卒被淪爲奴隸。據史載當時有位名叫密斯的英國艦主，他曾在中國載了一批華人到這地來，把他們安置在大陸西岸的金河流域上，自己便溜之大吉，去別尋生路，這位船主後來有沒有舊地重來的行動，則沒有跡象可資証實，這首批中國人被放逐到這地後，爲了生存問題，曾竭力謀在本境建立新社會，這回則有事實的根據，不過他們的努力終於落空，據說當時僑居墨西古的西班牙人，在探悉本地有華僑的足跡後，便派了大批艦隊到這地來把這批華僑全部擄去，以充他們的奴隸。上述的一段歷史，本來與目前僑居

加境的華僑完全無關，不過事出有因，既非大話西遊，而是華僑先烈披荆斬棘的一段悲愴歷史，故不能不順帶提及來談談吧。

自從該首批華僑絕跡後，北美新大陸歷陸十年間都未見過中國人的足跡，直至一八五〇年當美國加省發現金鑛的時候，方再見數千華僑結集此地，該批華僑中後來有少數因隨着找尋金鑛的追求而漸流浪到加拿大的麥臣與夫李沙的上流來。抵步五年後，該批拓荒的華僑便首次參加本國的選舉，這次即爲卑詩省舉行省選的首次，不過值得指出的，就是該時卑詩省尚未參加聯邦的中央政府，選舉逾兩年後，本省方正式加入加國的版圖，華僑首次投票的地點，即爲本省古城李魯達(Lillooet)。

自斯而後，華僑一直保存選權有四十九年的時間，雖然在選民的名單上，我們是被列爲『外僑』，但當時加國政客對我們的選票，比諸其他正統籍民的，也感覺一樣的重視。

一八八〇年當加拿大正在忙於開闢的時候，安得總建築公司便派船到中國去迎接大批中國苦力工人到這裏來，首次完成橫貫加拿大的公路，其功勞就該歸到華僑的身上。直至鐵路告成，火車能由加東的滿地可直達到加西的昧蔴地時，已有一萬五千名華僑居在本境了。該批華僑對每次本國的選舉，都曾起了左右性的作用。至於華僑當日確曾參與選舉的明証，可從十九世紀遺下的紀錄中証實，該等紀錄叙述華人每遇選舉的時候，都須在西人監票員面前破碗發誓，以示盡忠。

直至一八九四年，加拿大政府便通過法案，內容規定『所有柴納門(按一指當日西人蔑視中國人的稱呼)均不能在本省的選民名單上報名登記，選舉時不能參加投票』。這樣，該法律實施後，中國人雖忠心耿耿，肯在西人面前破碗發誓，可惜也終於枉費心血。其連加國首相對中國人嘉許的一番由衷之言『若果沒有中國人的幫助，恐怕詩丕亞鐵路和加西的各項鑛業，其完成和開闢的階段，總是遙遙無期吧。』不過這番感恩的衷心話，在種族成見過深的人們的心裏，是不會發生多大的影响的。

卑詩省政府既通過新例，遞奪華僑選權，在當時克苦耐勞的華僑看來，一點也不

感覺詫異，因爲他們的命途，早在三十年前已開始遭逢厄運了。

橫貫加拿大的詩丕鐵路告成後，旅加華僑史歷又步入新階段，大多隨着鐵路建築的完成而告失業，由於此地謀生較諸中國能得更厚的報酬，所以大多華僑不願回返中國去，而寧在這個荒蕪的邊境來繼續奮鬥，有些較爲雄心的還投到加拉補（本省北部）去探尋礦床，可惜找不到若何成績，依然如故的沒法解決生活。

當時美國南北內戰適值結束，但帶來的慘酷後果却是種族仇恨，該氣一時蔚屬風行，黑人固首當其衝，而東亞人也被牽及，首次露出種族歧視的証據，就是美國的礦業公司，陳列排亞標語，限制東亞人開礦；懷奧明省的赤泉埠上更發生流血的慘劇，暴動伸到華埠，廿八名華僑慘遭殺害，整個華埠的居民也被驅逐一空，美國南北戰爭結束不及六年，而太平洋沿岸的排亞運動，一時風起雲湧，羅省又有廿二名華僑慘被戕害，還有無數的被毆傷，禍患漸蔓延到加拿大來，其程度雖沒有美國那樣劇烈，但雲埠唐人街亦發生暴動，本埠華僑奮起迎擊，用棍棒刀劍等武器把暴徒驅散，華埠的商店大多已被摧殘破壞，後華僑將情向奧京最高法院起訴，卒獲政府補回損失十萬元。

晚近半世紀以還，西人中能認識華人之真正價值者，爲數尚不過多，在不少的西人心目裏，每位中國人不外還是『虎面周』或電影上所描繪的差李陳的一樣人物吧了。

經過此次的暴亂，華僑只有結集在華埠等候局勢的轉變，他們該時的職業機會，亦只限於家僕，衣館餐館耕園等手藝工作，幸而彼等均皆克苦耐勞，所以在這些工業方面頗有造就，尤以他們所耕的園，散佈於肥沃的哥林比河流域上，不久卒成本省舉足輕重的民族。

近年來，華僑在加的社會地位已日漸改善，華生不獨在西人學校顯現出類拔萃的人才，且在各種高尚職業中亦見彼等時露頭角。戰爭年間，更見華青年司身軍中，與西人方面並肩作戰，發揮了中國人的優良傳統，在此種光輝的成績下，卒破碎西人對華僑一向所抱的錯誤的黃禍觀念，而此刻已獲西人認爲是加拿大公民中的有用成員。
